

HK Clean Up
27th October 2012
Pak Kok, Lamma Island

Team
HOK/UBS
Living Lamma

Pak Kok

- 20 adults and 8 kids
- 100 bags of rubbish
 - Including:
 - ~900 plastic bottles and ~50 bags of polystyrene
 - Glass bottles, cans, juice boxes, plastic bags, caps, pens, lighters, fishing line & net, fish hooks, toothbrushes, syringes and needles, condoms (unused), shoes, cups, plates, forks, knives, spoons, food wrappers, straws, batteries, light bulbs, oil bottles, rope, car parts, a hard hat, pallets, cigarette butts, dead fish, a dead land turtle, dead crabs caught in netting

Not a beach, but a landfill site

In an otherwise beautiful setting

After the clean up

Thanks to the volunteers!

But one week later....

More pictures & info

- On Flickr:
<http://www.flickr.com/photos/livinglamma/sets/72157631931796940/>
- For more information on Lamma clean ups, visit:
www.livinglamma.com or contact Jo Wilson,
Chairperson, Living Lamma:
livinglamma@yahoo.com or 90423241.